TURF TAMER, INC.
A LANDSCAPE DEVELOPMENT FIRM

When I was a kid, I always looked forward to spring. Warmer and longer days meant more time that I could be outside enjoying nature. Now that I'm a little older, I still get excited when I see the trees becoming greener and fresh buds beginning to bloom.

This is a season of renewal and I want to encourage you to explore ways you can breathe new life into your home. Whether you're starting from scratch or have a smaller project in mind to spruce up your exterior, now is the time to begin.

If you're feeling a little overwhelmed or you're dreading all the trips to the hardware store, my team at Turf Tamer can work with you to design a relaxing escape or a dynamic area for entertaining. We would love to sit down with you and see what we can create, together.

All the Best,

Relaxing Refuge

Whether you're daydreaming of finding tranquility by your own koi pond or recharging by a trickling stream after a long day, we have you covered. The movement and sound of water can instantly put your mind and body at ease. Spring is the perfect season to build out your vision. Work alongside our team to create the dream home you've always imagined.

Visional vista

Soak up some sun sipping ice tea under the pergola or while hosting a BBQ for friends on your patio. Turn these moments into memories in a beautiful outdoor living space where you can relax, host, and enjoy time spent at home. Let Turf Tamer maintain your landscape and upgrade your entertainment area so that it's always ready to be shown off.

Ember Elements

Transform your scenery with custom landscaping patterns to create an oasis that draws you outside for ultimate relaxation. Spend cool early spring nights settled in with friends and family around an in-ground fire place and watch it set ablaze the night sky. Bespoke details such as hammered metal furnishings and chunky concrete make rebellious statements and let your personal style shine through.
