• SPRING 2019 •

When I was a kid, I always looked forward to pool parties. Whether it was a friend's birthday party or a family gathering, there was nothing better than hamburgers, watermelon, and cannonball contests.

Fast forward to today, and I'm still trying to make the biggest splash—through the spaces we design at Turf Tamer. You see, we're all about making an entrance at your home and creating wow-moments that carry on through to the backyard. No detail gets overlooked.

I hope these snapshots inspire you to achieve an amazing getaway where you and your family can create new memories this summer and in the years to come. We'd love to hear your goals for creating a fun and relaxing escape.

All the Best,

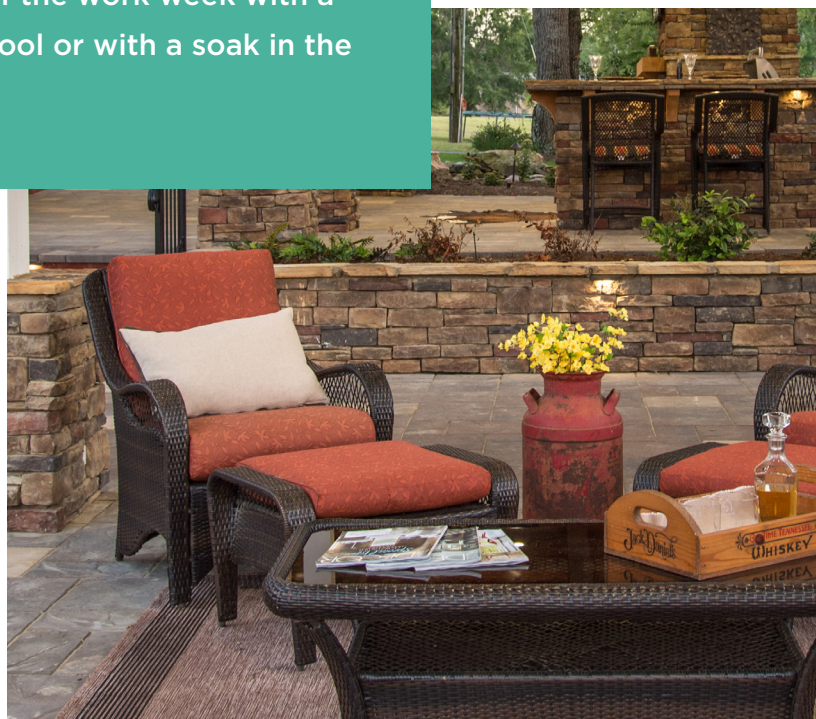

Lee Buffington

CLOCK OUT, Dive In

After a long day at work there's nothing better than kicking back in your personal paradise. Wash away the stress of the work week with a dip in your in-ground pool or with a soak in the hot tub.

A RESERVATION For Relaxation

The hottest new restaurant in town is opening in your backyard and it has it all—patio seating, a peaceful ambiance and an outdoor fire place for cooler evenings. So mix up a pitcher of sweet tea or margaritas and toast to your stunning outdoor living space.

Whenever you go on vacation, do you see spots around the resort and think, “I wish I could bring this experience home with me.”? Well, now you can. At Turf Tamer, we take your wish list and make it a reality. This summer book your own backyard and discover your new favorite destination.
