

Traditions LIVE HERE

TURF TAMER, INC.
A LANDSCAPE DEVELOPMENT FIRM

Summer is typically a time of family trips to the beach and other fun vacations. But after a week away, there's nothing better than that feeling of walking in the front door, dropping your bags and simply being home again. In a way, that's how fall feels to me. It's a time to rediscover the charm of what makes your little place in the world so comforting.

Even though school and work schedules prevent us from taking as many trips this time of year, there's something nice about staying around the house—especially when it has all-new elements that make it truly magazine-worthy.

This is the season to make your home the destination, but you shouldn't have to spend what little free time you have sprucing up your landscaping. This is a season of harvest and we want you to enjoy the fruits of our labor. Whether you envision a new pergola over your patio or an entryway that will wow friends and family, our specialists at Turf Tamer, Inc. can make your dreams reality.

All the Best,

Gather ROUND

---

It's finally flannel season and sweater weather is on its way—now is the time to create inviting outdoor gathering spaces for you and your guests. A dining area beneath a pergola glowing with strand lights. A fire pit where you can create the perfect s'more for dessert. An elegant bar to deliver a tailgate atmosphere on Saturdays.

From Dream TO REALITY

STEP 1

CONVERSATION

Our process starts by learning what you envision for your outdoor space. You can show us everything you've pinned and circled in magazines for inspiration.

STEP 2

DRAWING

Before we break ground, we make sketches based on everything you share with us so we can make sure we're picturing what you're picturing.

STEP 3

RENDERING

Next, we'll create detailed digital renderings of what your space will look like. You'll really get excited seeing everything starting to take shape.

STEP 4

BUILD OUT

Time to take it from 2D to 3D! Our team gets to work constructing your perfect place to relax, entertain or escape. In just a short time, your home will be completely transformed.

Great ESCAPES

---

With the right vision and materials, you can bring the look and feel of a mountain resort to your backyard or give your garden the feel of a Napa Valley vineyard. Whatever inspires you, we can help you incorporate all the right elements to give your home a unique look and feel for fall.
